Description

This wonderfully constructed Billiards scoring cabinet consists of revolving number bars, Life Pool sliders and a central slate section which opens to reveal a hidden ball storage compartment. Made by Orme & Sons circa 1880 the side of the cabinet is embellished with carved brackets and the top features a detailed balustrade with turned bosses. Orme & Sons were founded in 1845 and originally traded under the name "Thomas and James Orme" supplying a large assortment of new and second-hand billiards and bagatelle tables, cues, racks, and associated accessories. The company changed its name to "Orme & Sons" around 1874 and expanded their operations to Glasgow in 1880 when they acquired a Royal Warrant from His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales. In 1881.
