

Antique Billiards, Snooker Life Pool scoring board

Sold

REF: 1126

Description

A Victorian mahogany cased billiards or snooker scorer, circa 1860 by John Thurston of London with two hand-lettered revolving cylindrical.

Rollers, each having a designated pointer, retaining the original makers transfer. Footnote: John Thurston (1777-1850) was an apprentice cabinetmaker at Gillows of Lancaster and London, in 1799 he established his own company and specialized in billiard tables and associated billiard room furniture.