Description

A stunning Regency billiard marker circa 1820, by Erwood of London

A beautiful hand painted cartouche above a rose wood border which frames a mahogany , and boxwood panel,decorated with further elegant painted lines.

Complete with pointers and cribbage holes with ebony markers.

Erwood, James, 3 Brownlow St, Holborn, London, billiard table and backgammon board maker (1815-39).

Recorded in partnership with Alfred Erwood, 1815-1825

J. & A. Erwood, successors to the late Solomon Erwood, supplied Francis, Marquess of Tavistock of Oakley, Bedfordshire with cues, maces, sets of balls, mainly 'for the Russian game', and framed rules for 'the pool of Russian games'
