Description

A full size decorative antique billiard or snooker table in golden solid English oak circa 1890, standing on eight carved column topped legs with applied panels and motifs, fitted with patent steel vacuum cushions for optimum playability, the friezes with fitted roundels. The table is complete with a matching scoring cabinet and free standing revolving billiard cue stand. It is rare to find a complete set like this with the matching accessories intact, the timber quality is outstanding being solid English oak throughout. Almost certainly commissioned for an outstanding county house of the time.
