

Antique billard cue stand circa 1850

Sold

REF: 1239

Height: 157 cm (61.8")

Diameter: 46 cm (18.1")

Description

An extremely elegant revolving billiard cue carousel circa 1850 Probably made by John Thurston of London A central column is flanked by three similar uprights, all mounted on a revolving base with elegant out swept feet and brass castors. Mahogany construction with a pierced top to allow for cue storage The stand is able to hold 30 cues